WE ARE WHOLLY IN THE RATIONAL APPARATUS PHASE

The true light of the Rational animal is the light from the world of his origin, the RATIONAL LIGHT from the RATIONAL WORLD.

This is the discovery of the two worlds: the electric and magnetic one which is the world we live in, and the other world which is the RATIONAL PLAIN, from where we came out and which gave consequence to this one, because of our deforming ourselves into Rational animals.

And so, with the assiduous reading of this knowledge, one acquires the Rational Clairvoyance and the living creature will see the RATIONAL PLAIN, the place of origin of everyone.

In this knowledge, the revelation of the two worlds.

The world has already gone through an infinitude of phases, we are now in the Rational Apparatus phase; it is the last phase of the life of matter. The phase in which everyone will be linked to one's World of Origin, the RATIONAL WORLD. And from there receiving all the orientations required for one's equilibrium here in this life. The true Rational Phase when all will get in touch and communicate with the RATIONAL SUPERIOR, receiving all the orientations transmitted by the RATIONAL SUPERIOR for one's equilibrium here in this life.

The human being is the most monstrous parasite
there exists upon the Earth, in view of the hideous crimes that he practices against the natural laws.

* * *

Man is a vague beast without destiny who was born upon this Earth without knowing why or what for.

* * *

In this Literary Work we will know the reason why.

* * *

Knowledge of return to the place of origin of everyone, the RATIONAL PLAIN, our World of Origin, from where all came and to where all are going, how all came and how all are going.

The salvation of the Rational animal can only be done by the world of his origin, the RATIONAL WORLD and nobody else.

This is the discovery of the two worlds: the electric and magnetic which we inhabit and that of the RATIONAL PLAIN from where we came out and which gave consequence to this one that we live in.

With the assiduous reading of this knowledge, one acquires the Rational Clairvoyance and the living creature will see the RATIONAL PLAIN, the place of origin of everyone.

ATTENTION

Here's the glorifying point of the Rational animal, the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION.

Everyone without effort, very naturally, seeing the Rational Light inside one's home and being attended to inside one's home.

There being no need of going anywhere, because inside your homes you are oriented in everything, you will receive all the orientations required for your equilibrium. As you can see, it is the natural knowledge and not science out of someone's imagination. It is not art because science is art, but it is from up here, from the other world, the RATIONAL PLAIN.

Then, from the other world that is the RATIONAL PLAIN comes all the orientations required, inside your homes or wherever you are, for the equilibrium of everyone.

Therefore, there is no temple, there is no synagogue, there is no house of preaching to preach the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION. No! Each of you in your homes will receive all the graces from your World of Origin.

The origin is Rational and you will receive all the required orientations inside your homes. From the world of your origin, you will receive all the required orientations, wherever you are.

Therefore, there is no need for temples or synagogues in order for all to be oriented inside your homes or wherever you are. You will receive all the required orientations from your World of Origin, the RATIONAL PLAIN.

And so, it is time for the Rational animals to vibrate with joy, all vibrating with joy for having encountered with one's true World of Origin, for encountering the right bearing and, such thing not being expected, the emotion will be enormous! And so, vibrating with joy, the contentment is general so that the Rational animal, overjoyed, will not know how to thank the divine grace achieved, the definitive change to his true World of Origin, the RATIONAL PLAIN.

This knowledge is not for the commerce of exploitation but for the salvation of everyone.

That means: the return of all to their World of Origin, the RATIONAL WORLD. The true world of the Rational animal is the RATIONAL WORLD.

An emissary of the owner of the Book, the RATIONAL SUPERIOR, accompanies this knowledge to do whatever is necessary for the reader.

NOTE

"Because the human being is an astrological center, that is why in time he had to come to the conclusion of finding in himself the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION, and in it the spokes-person of the truth of the truths, for the nature of the living creatures is adequate to the nature which made them", for they are formed by this nature and thence they depend on it to live, being then formed by seven particles and dependent on them.

NOTE FROM THE RESPONSIBLE

This Literary Work is the fruit of the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION. On it are exposed, in the simplest and clear form, all the knowledge of the formation of the world and the beings which inhabit it; the enlightenment on the origin of everything, before being everything what it was, and how it got to be what it is through the degeneration and deformation of nature.

It is not a knowledge extracted from the learnings of this world, but the truth of the truths, dictated by the RATIONAL SUPERIOR, Entity of the RATIONAL PLAIN, through his representative, responsible for this edition.

RATIONAL PLAIN: where the Rationals were with their progress; from where we came out and to where we are going by means of the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION.

Rational Part - Plain which was not ready to enter into progress

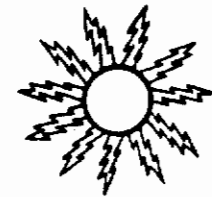

- 1st They started to progress by their own account;
In this progress there started a focus of light formed by
- 2nd the virtues that the Rationals were losing;
In this progress already the end of the extinction of
- 3rd those bodies;
In this step it lasted a long eternity for the formation
- 4th of the bodies;
In this step already understanding each other by means
- 5th of squeaks;
In this formation starting to let out the voice,
- 6th being stammerers;
7th Stammerers more advanced, the formation of the moon started;
The virtues started to gather, virtues of the plain and the
- 8th resin; there came the origin of the stars;
Stammerers more advanced, but this advancement was not yet
- 9th of understanding; letting out the voice;
- 10th Stammerers with some understanding, but very vague;
- 11th With a bit more of understanding;
- 12th The resin had already well developed its deformation;
- 13th The separation of the lands started;
Where there started the vegetation much different from this
- 14th one, and the dilatation of the organs;
The creation of the animals started; starting to make use
- 15th of some plants;
The dilatation of the organs started to appear; up to then
- 16th being eternal;
Where the cases of death started to appear; new creations.
- 17th It lasted a long eternity dying and being born stammerers;
In this progress the moon was already appearing with its
- 18th modifications, also the stars;
The vegetation completely modified, the day and the night
- 19th already existed;
New creations, new understandings, already understanding
- 20th each other regularly;
- 21st In this progress there arose the first steps which are here.

The life and the organization of the organic beings is in such a way that the organic beings make confusions with life. Life has its very clear organizations for he who knows how to live. But, for he who does not know how to live, it becomes disorganized and the organic beings reign on fencing, on the fencing of life.

In order for life to be well formed, well constituted, firm, equilibrated to the good living, it is necessary that the organic beings and the organizations be all parallel or adequate to the manner that life is constituted; because life is also constituted of several organizations and several means of the power of life. The power of life rests on that which the organizations can correspond to in order to be equivalent to life.

What good does it do the living creature to have life, to live and not know how to live? It does not do any good. Because the more one tries to organize oneself in life, the more one disorganizes oneself, and disorganizing oneself, more and more the suffering has been engulfing us.

It is like the tide, always against the tide, in a stormy sea. And so, these tempests that prevail on the life of the living creature, that sinks this precious life, by these storms made because of not knowing how to live, and the living creature remains imagining and saying: "The more I look for the good, the more it gets distant from me, the farther it becomes or maybe in the infinite because I cannot see what I am going to do out of life." And the living creature remains in this bitter twilight, in this dream of a desperate sufferer, in this dream of tears, in this infernal nightmare, thinking about an infinitude of things and not knowing how to solve his ideal.

INTRODUCTION

In this Literary Work are all the teachings of the beginning and the end of the world dictated by the RATIONAL SUPERIOR to administrate the Rational Learnings.

What are these Rational Learnings based on? They are based on the true personality. In the Rational Learnings are all the bases of the being supreme to everything and to everyone, in order to make known to all where you have come from, how you have come, to where you are going and how you are going.

Is it spiritism? No! Spiritism is this enigma that all dream they possess but have never proved nor will ever be able to prove it; that is why it is spiritism, thing or cause in experience, and where there exist the experiences, there are the enigmas.

Therefore, spiritism is enigmatic and the Rational has no enigma. Rationally all enigmas are clearly, lapidatedly, and solidly solved.

Spiritism means: experimenting, in experience, smart, pricking, exploitation, always with two intentions, good and bad; explanation that does not account for the profound being of matter, remaining in experience always, without solution, because of conserving all the mysteries, all the enigmas and all the enchantment.

Here is the reason for the sufferings and the weeping. He who lives in experience does not arrive to the reason or to the conclusion of things. Spiritism, philosophy, thing which nobody can have faith in. He who sails in experience does not know whether he is right or not.

Spiritism and a boat adrift are the same thing because both ignore and keep in mystery their origins and maintain the mysteries of everything. Therefore, spiritism is a call to alert everyone that there exist the inhabitants of this immense vacuum and other whereabouts, beyond and much beyond this vacuum. That is why spiritism is in the singular, the reason why it never went any further than that.

Then, We from the Superior Astral came here to guide you all, to enlighten you all on these mysteries, to disenchant you all, to prove the why of all these confusions and to verify the why of everything and for everything.

Therefore, the Rational Learnings given by Us, Inhabitants of the Superior Astral, are real learnings of the why of this life, the why of this world, the before being of everything that composes this world, and the why all are unknown of their origin, of the why of life, of everything and of everyone.

This is only possible with the Rational Learnings, with what is Rational, with purity and with the truth of truths, and not the way you live there, at the mercy of spiritism that, for being something in experience, gathers all the false truths.

The one who lives in experience is not with the truth but has a particle of the truth. This particle of truth is what animates everyone in these spiritism experiences and throws everyone in doubt with the false faith, because faith is of the false conductor.

If faith were not of the false conductor, no one would be betrayed by it; if faith were of worth and resolved, all would conquer with the power of faith and no one would suffer. There would be no suffering because all, with faith, would resolve everything of good, of goodness, or of evil. Because of faith being an enigma from this enchantment there, you live maintaining the suffering and the weeping, for if it were of any worth no one would suffer.

Everyone uses faith and its power for every formality, for every effect and every solution.

If faith were of worth, there would be no misery of all sizes, of all carats, nor suffering; but because it is of no worth that is why all suffer: the rich one suffers, the remedied one suffers, the one who has and the one who has not suffer. If it resolved, none of this would exist and because of it not resolving that is why all this exists.

Therefore, the learnings given by the RATIONAL SUPERIOR are Rational Learnings, are much different from this hollowness, where everything is hollow; it only exists in words but, in reality, nothing. Many fertile learnings will come with the course of the Rational elaboration given by the RATIONAL SUPERIOR.

And so, everyone, each one in his category: the inhabitants of the Earth, the inhabitants of the outer space, which is this immense vacuum, the inhabitants of the other whereabouts and the Inhabitants of the Superior Astral, all will get there, but let's go slowly, learning all the lessons from the correlative of the Rational elaboration.

Doubts belong to the one who knows nothing and with the elapsing of the Scripturation all doubts will disappear, because that which is Rational is complete and that which is science is from the enchantment and incomplete. You are accustomed to the science of the enchantment and the science of the enchantment is full of doubts. You need to note well that that which is Rational has no doubts, mysteries, enigmas or enchantment. It unshrouds everything with the truth.

Therefore, that which is Rational is above everything and everyone, and the science of the enchantment and of the enchanted ones is below everyone and everything because they are creations of the philosophers who remain philosophizing: "To be or not to be?" Philosophies made by the enchanted ones that do not know what they are doing, and he who does not know what he is doing leaves everyone with doubts; for that reason all live doubting everything, everyone, and themselves, because of living under this scientific philosophy created, invented and forged by the inhabitants of the Earth. Enigmatic beings, matter without solution that leaves everyone with doubts, as till today you live there, doubting everything, without any solution and saying: "In the world everything is illusion and nothing else."

ROSARY OF LIFE

Life is a rosary of beads. Each bead contains a past, each bead a period of life and each period with the good or bad trances. And so, this rosary having been formed, it is very easy for whomever it is to learn. Such enchanted rosary, which no one has ever disenchanting because of knowing that all inhabitants of this world are enchanted.

Why enchanted? Because this world is enchanted and because of it being enchanted, everyone lives in experiences, from experience to experience and ever to learn.

Why enchanted? Because everything is kept mysterious.

Why enchanted? Because no one has ever worked out the solution, except now, I, the RATIONAL SUPERIOR.

Why enchanted? Because everything encloses itself up in infinity, mysteriously, without solution.

Why enchanted? Because no one knows how this was made, except now, I, the RATIONAL SUPERIOR, explaining everything, bit by bit, with clear, solid, consolidated proofs, and without contradictions.

It is thus, the rosary of life, which all the enchanted ones do not know, and that they will know through My intermediacy, that is, the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION.

The living creature, in possession of the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION, works out the solution to everything, based and verified in every way, in every form, in any manner, pure and clean. For that is the rosary of life for all, universally. All will be immunized by the Scripturation of Universal Redemption.

In this rosary is all the infant's life. Immunization is completely different from spiritualization, it is a natural thing; and the living creature, with a treasure like this, is well-supplied of everything.

The RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION will brighten everyone, making everyone get to the natural because of this being one of the most elevated virtues, the most heightened of all in the world.

And so, the basis of everything is in the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION, and the living creature in order to immunize himself needs to read everyday, and through this reading, getting to be immunized. And once immunized, everything coming to the hands of the living creature, little by little; betterments being awakened, conquering everything he desires and much more yet.

The RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION will be attained with the constancy in the reading; and the living creature, as he goes on reading, starts feeling its influence, by degrees, until integrally immunizing himself.

To immunize himself, the living creature may take months or take years. It all depends on the living creature, on his constancy in reading, or not. The ones who want to achieve it earlier, work for it and the remiss ones will take much longer to attain its benefits. And so, the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION will be and has to be the greatest brilliant common to everyone, universally.

Why common? Because of it being a natural thing.

Why natural? Because everyone's nature is made for this adaptation.

Then, the living creature asks: "And why has this not come before to the world?" I say: everything arrives at the proper time. The time had not come yet and now it has come. No fruit-tree gives fruits before its season. Everything has its time.

"And can one practice the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION in any place?" Yes, one can! Because the living creature, after being immunized, is always immunized, day and night, night and day.

The living creature asks: "And what must one do to acquire it?" Read everyday, that is all it takes to acquire it in no time. The reading gives the knowledge, instructs the living creature and the living creature sees the effects redoubling more and more.

And does it deprive the freedom of the living creature? In no point!

Is there any responsibility? None! Where is the responsibility if the living creature knows everything he needs to do and not do? It is something that gives instructions for the living creature to regard as of great utility over the points of view.

Yes, it is from the Immunization that there comes everything that the living creature needs. And the ones who read every day will achieve it faster and the ones that do not read will be late in achieving it; if one is to acquire it in one year, not reading every day one may take two, three, or even more, depending on the carelessness of the living creature.

With the Immunization the living creature becomes happier in everything, being able to arrive to a much elevated point, one he has never thought of. Everything is developed by the most powerful force in the world, which is the RATIONAL

IMMUNIZATION.

The bees in their hives, working and cheering the great orient, the RATIONAL who is here. Orient means: the orienting point, the maximum point in elevations.

And all these bees working with close attention for the emancipation of themselves, turning to the honey of the honeys which is here. Honey means all of good, all of the best, all more than better still.

Therefore, the bees of both sexes, all in fury to conquer, each one working for it, to aggrandize themselves.

This reading represents the hive, and I, the Lord, endeavouring the supplying of honey, teaching the bees how to be fabricators of the precious liquid that is called the happiness of everyone.

The happiness that shines in the world is a happiness without basis and a happiness without solid basis fails to be happiness and exposes the living creatures to the life of trances, always looking for happiness and the more they look for it, the farther it always renders itself. And others undergoing insignificant moments in the vague hope of being happy, dying and failing to reach that said happiness which is so talked about in the world but that was never encountered, because there is no one in the world that can say: "I am happy!" Because when he is well on the one side, he is bad on the other, when he is satisfied on the one side, he is badly satisfied on the other, and for that reason said happiness has never been found.

Why? Because the world is of struggles and where there are struggles, there is suffering and there is no happiness. Some struggle for love, others for business, others to better their living, others with diseases, others to conquer their ideals, in the hope of this, in the hope of that, in the hope of achieving what they desire. In short, life is of struggles and where there exist struggles, there can exist no happiness. There exist, instead, suffering and sacrifice.

The rich struggle, the poor struggle, everyone struggles. Therefore, if nature is not happy, does not regulate, how can you all regulate?

And once your not being regulated, you are not happy. Weather itself does not regulate, because you are children of this unregulated nature. One moment, too much cold, the next moment, unsupportable cold that punishes, ill-treats and sometimes kills. Rain, wind, in short, exposed there to the nature that does not regulate. Diseases of every form and of every species. In the midst of all these precipices, facing all these dangers of life and many times to the point of almost losing life. Therefore, if all are children of a nature that does not regulate, how can the living creatures be happy, if they do not regulate?

Happiness is a word that is only a name, arranged to subdue and to alleviate the ones who do not know life, as if to say: "Do this to see if you will be happy." And always looking for happiness and never finding it. A mother, what happiness can she have, always worried with her children? A father, what happiness can he have, worried the same way? And because of being worried they curse themselves, suffering, struggling and facing all the difficulties: sun, rain, night mist, an infinitude of worries.

This is to prove to you that happiness has always remained in hopes and for that reason, here is the life of adventures, in the uncertainty of everything and of oneself.

Where is happiness? Where is it? Only with the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION can it be reached, because I prove that the immunized living creature is a happy living creature, is a living creature that is always right in everything and where there is rightness, there is happiness. That which is right lives right and not in the uncertainty like all live.

With the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION, I prove and verify that all are happy, because the immunized living creature has solutions to everything, with certainty. He knows what is and what is not; he does not live deluded and receiving the blows of illusion. What unhappiness!

The Rationally immunized living creature can say with certainty, because he proves what he says: "I am happy!" And all the Rationally immunized ones are happy as in the future the whole world will be, because of all embracing the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION with open arms for the happiness of themselves.

Who is the one that wants to be unhappy? No one!

And so, the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION prevailing universally, everyone becoming lord of himself and obeying only one: the RATIONAL SUPERIOR. Because all will be immunized, all will understand each other, and the way you have been living, spiritualized, no one understands anything, not even oneself and for that reason, always without understanding.

It is proved that there exists no happiness, but now it will exist with the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION, because all knowing, there is comprehension among all, and ending these infernal catacombs, the sufferings of life disappear, and the querulousness and the agonies disappear, and happiness will shine among all because all will understand each other and where all understand each other, there is happiness.

Therefore, strive to read, be constant in the reading for the good of yourselves. You have never learned to be happy; it is now that you are starting to learn and in order to learn one needs to read consecutively. Yes, you have learned to be happy, not as the teachings of the world are, teachings of unhappiness and not of happiness, but with the teachings of the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION that make the living creature happy; everything of good coming to him, everything of good increasing, always multiplying.

The living creature, in possession of the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION, will continue reading other things of great usefulness in the Rational points. Now is the beginning; it is necessary that the living creature be assiduous in the reading in order to faster achieve the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION.

Therefore, these bees inside this hive, with the salvation honey in all points of view, and many, because of not reading, waste time delaying their own happiness. One can say that the immunized living creature is complete of everything, everything brought and solved by the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION.

Therefore, there is nothing to think about except reading every day and the more the better, in order to see everything solved faster and swifter have the solutions to everything, for in the Immunization lies everything that the living creature needs, lies the solution to everything and much more yet. Here is the chart for happiness, the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION. Immunization means: salvation. Saved oneself, redeemed oneself, remitted the sins, restrained all the bitter trances, restrained the unhappiness.

All these solid and well solid, clear, clean, crystalline, and pure proofs you will find in the Scripturation, in this same conjuration, bit by bit; the proofs being born in the living creature himself that is being immunized and seeing the transformation, like from water to wine, always for the better in everything; consolidated proofs and consolidating with all the instructions of the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION that I expose, or of its results, unknown to all in the world, who have never heard of the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION, except now; that since long this brilliant of the brilliants has been born here, this treasure of treasures, for the equilibrium of everyone in all points of view.

Immunization means: richness of riches, power of the powers, the invisible snow of happiness superposed over the perched-high light of all the dazzling beings, of all the crystalline and clear virtues. Regulation in all points of view, everyone being regulated, everyone coming to an understanding and understanding each other, one another.

Then, the living creature asks: "And is this for now?" I say: it will not be long for the Universe to become aware. This is for your time.

The infant asks: "And will everyone reach it? Will we see it shine in the Universe?" You will!

"Will we see it shine among all?" You will!

"Will we see all shining with it?" You will!

Who is he that wants to leave the right for the doubtful? Who is he that does not want to aggrandize himself in all points of view and elevate himself? Who is he that wants to suffer? No one! Who is he in the world that has no ambition? Everyone!

And thus, it will spread throughout the world as a lightning. Everyone wants to see it, all want to know it, all insist on obtaining it, all want to be immunized for the good of themselves. Yes, universally all becoming immunized in an insignificant period of time.

The RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION will give to all the chart to happiness, through the Rational Scripturation, because in it is the why of everything, the why of your being the way you are, and the why of the world being this way; before everything being as it is, how it was and why it was, why you have stopped being what you were to be as you are and why the world has stopped being as it was to be what it is; before being what it was, how you were and why you were, before being this way, how you were living and why you were living, why you have stopped living as you were living, and what was the cause and the origin of your transforming and deforming yourselves until arriving to this deformation and its conclusion. Finally the proven and verified, solidified, pure and crystalline solution, in every form, in every way, for the consolidation of all those that had never thought or imagined that such thing could arrive in the world.

And thus, everything comes in this transformation and before it, everything coming to be known. The beginning of the deformation and all its trajectory up to this point, bit by bit; the end of the deformation, the end of everyone and of everything, to where all this is going and to where everyone is going, which is from where all left and stopped being what you were to be what you are.

In view of the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION you will not be born there any longer, but the bodies, instead of being born there again, will be born in the Rational part. The Immunization taking care of transporting the seeds, which are the origin of these bodies, to the Rational part and here, then, forming other bodies much different from these ones, in the great plain up here, much beyond the sun, where the Rationals are with their progress of purity much different from this one, and in the Scripturation you will know it bit by bit.

The formation of the bodies there on Earth is derived from seven seeds and these seeds, in particles, and they are in the following places: one in the sun, one in the moon, in the stars, in the water, in the earth, in the animals and in the plants. For that reason, the body depends on these seven parts, these seven particles which gathered form the human body. The living creature is immunized through the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION, and the Immunization taking care of the locomotion of these seven seeds, these seven particles, to the plain up here, Rational; here then, another body being formed much different from this one, and the living creature, through the Immunization, will not be born there in this world any longer, but up here, in the RATIONAL PLAIN where all are pure, clean and perfect, without defects. The progress is of purity, much different from this one, and there is no suffering of any sort.

These are some insignificant proofs to give the formation and to show to the living creatures that the knowledge is of equilibrium, returning to the place of origin, because you will no longer be born there; while, living there with the spiritualization, you will never be able to go any further than this. Yes, because as long as there exist the sun, moon, stars, water, earth, animals and plants, you would always be the same ones being born there, and only through the Immunization will you see this transformation of these seven parts, there deformed in these conditions, to the natural state which is up here in the Rational part.

And thus the happiness of all will be made, universally, through the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION and all getting to your places, from where you came out. All this you will know in the Scripturation for, as you are becoming immunized, these particles are being taken out from the sun, from the stars and from the other beings. The sun diminishing its heat, its size, the moon, the stars and after everyone being here, there will no longer exist the sun, moon or stars; disappearing in those conditions, because the virtues which they are formed of are transported to the RATIONAL PLAIN, that all this you are going to know in the Scripturation: before being earth what it was, before being water what it was and why it was, from where everything started, before being the sun what it was, the beginning of the moon, stars, of everything, and of everyone.

Therefore, read with persistence, daily. This is the Rational Knowledge of the universal equilibrium of all, thus the title of the Literary Work says: UNIVERSE IN DISENCHANTMENT. The word disenchantment means happiness. Disenchanted oneself, became happy. One was enchanted and suffering embittered and now you are going to know, bit by bit, in the Scripturation, with lapidated minutiae, questions and answers to every capacity; things of this world, of what you know and what you know not, the why of the world, and the why of everything.

That is the reason I tell you who is the RATIONAL SUPERIOR, because you are going to know everything in the Scripturation. Time will demonstrate to everyone the right and the reason. The reason is confounded with the right and the right is confounded with the reason, because you very well know and you are aware that the deformed right is crooked. Deformed means: all the living creatures of this Earth, of this world, where the equilibrium cannot shine for all are imperfect, full of defects, exposed to the disequilibrium, without equilibrium, without a firm idea, unless be it for caprice or hate, and it could not be any other way because you are children of a nature that does not regulate, wholly imperfect, and for that reason you aim to lapidate it in every way, in every manner, in order to be able to live, in order to be able to pretend to be what you are not.

Now, the living creature asks: "And everything, is it necessary treatment?" I say: seeming treatment, treatment to pretend to be. Life is of appearances and all are treacherous, traitors, pretending to be what you are and what you are not, there persisting the instinct of falsity, of human ferocity, in contradiction to your being, because humanitarian is seen only in name, shining instead, the inhumanity.

What is the worth of life this way? It is worth much for the suffering of the same ones who maintain it for the disillusionments and receive the most despairing blows, because they maintain appearances as an element of prestige.

And so, the living creatures in search of the happiness without basis because where the appearances are, there is no happiness; and when the living creature starts to receive his cruel blows, one on top of the other, he sees how he was living fooled with life that seemed very good but which turns out to be very bad, because it is rare the one who suffers no disillusionment, remaining in the life of appearances, looking for the truth and never finding it, always wary, distrustful of everything, with the thought always startled out like a car of these warriors that goes on crushing what he desires through convenience.

The living creature asks: "And in the world, are all this way?" I say: yes, and for that reason the world is of suffering. The rich one suffers, the poor one suffers, the one who has suffers and the one who has not suffers. Everyone suffers.

Then, the living creature asks: "And how can we stop being sufferers? How will the abolishment of suffering in the world be?" I say: it will not be long. All in the world are tired of suffering, and so, see the generations and the durations, how fantastic their diminishment. Why? Because the suffering is unbearable defeating big and small ones, rich and poor ones, in every way and in every form. And the infant continues asking: "How will the world be able to be radicated and saved by the Divine Consistence?" I say: only through the enlightenment given by the divinity as these enlightenments are given through the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION.

And furthermore asks the infant: "And will everyone reach this grace? Is the nature of everyone already made in order to reach it? And why have they never reached it?" I say: because only now has the instructions on how to acquire it appeared.

And the living creature continues: "And how can the whole world acquire it?" I answer: it is very practical, by means of the Books within the reach of everyone.

There in the world these plebeians with their bowels weakened by so much thinking and the moment they read, the reasoning is so enfeebled that they finish reading and do not know how to explain contently, needing to read constantly in order to be restored to health, strengthening the mind and retaining what they have read in order to have the learning in themselves and to know how to enlighten the others. For if the $b + a = ba$, that is only the $b + a = ba$, takes long to enter the head and you spend years studying in order to know very little, now, much more advanced, it is necessary that you read constantly in order to be able to divulge any enlightenment and unfold in the thought that which is and that which is not.

The lights of the world are vague illusions and thus live the infants, wandering through this embittered grove, grove of this illusion that wants to make the world an open sky, and that which all look and see in the everyday life is the sky of destruction, the hell, where the demons suffer the consequences of these serpent petals.

And thus, the world that is a bird, that created all these birds that pass through there, that are born, grow up, die and disappear, and the world being a bird, creating all these birds, had to make known to the living creature that this world is also passing as all the birds of this world are birds that pass.

And the world being a bird, fabricator of these birds and of all these ramifications, you had to know, as you will know, as you are starting to know, that this world is passing and that ending the world, all the passengers will end, getting to their places which is the Rational part already enlightened.

Every living creature wandering in this world as a bird, passing in it one's bearable and unbearable passages, without seeing the solution to all these passages in this crepuscular world full of seeming greats, because of living deludedly, where there is nothing solid, starting with life itself, which, all of a sudden, transforms itself into another life.

Where are the solidifications of this world and of everything that exists? In no place! Life is a project that constitutes itself, diminishes and disappears.

Where is the truth if this life is not the true one? If this life were true you would not die, you would be eternal.

What is there of truth in this world? Nothing at all; truth in the world, only appearances and appearances are not truths, starting with life itself that seems to be a very good thing and suddenly everything is ended.

And thus is this bird, which is the world, with its passages, everyone and everything, for all this, the day of all the solutions had to arrive, now arriving the time for all these certifications here made by the RATIONAL SUPERIOR. The solidification and the certification of everyone is the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION.

And thus, exposing these contents to the tiny one and to the hugest one, that huge is the world and all those that far-farmed are in this fountain of lost ones, saying that life is really this one and no one resigning oneself to the nature one has, and to life itself. As the saying goes: "the parrots speak well but the waltz rumbles on and everyone depends on the beyond." Because of that, among everyone, the world has always been considered a mysterious thing, full of phenomena. The world was always interpreted as an undecipherable thing. No one knows who made it and the why of the existence of everything. Always learning till death and never concluding anything, always keeping everything mysteriously.

This life is the life of the enchanted ones who are all the living creatures that live more anguished than content, for they live a passing life of struggles where the ambitions, the annoyances and the discontentment are generated. The enchanted ones live always worried when facing life with the struggles of suffering, always struggling and suffering in this life of enchantment.

Enchantment means: torment! For that reason life is tormenting and in torment live all the enchanted ones; when it is not for this, it is for that, when it is not for one thing it is for another. Life always full of torments, always with an infinitude of good, evil, or upsetting thoughts.

That is the life of the ones that do not know how to live and do not know why they live because they are enchanted ones and they do not know why they are this way, because if they knew, they would have long stopped suffering and then would no longer be as they are.

The disenchantment is in the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION. The immunized living creature does not live as the enchanted ones live there. It is for that reason that the Scripturation has the name: UNIVERSE IN DISENCHANTMENT, made to disenchant these enchanted ones and disenchanting the whole world, saving all, changing everyone like from water to wine, changing the way of life, because of all being immunized; and the immunized ones know everything.

Enchantment means: sufferer without solution, there condemned to suffer and then die due to being enchanted. If one were not enchanted, one would not be a sufferer.

If the living creatures long since knew what they are, long since they would also not be as they are. It is now that they are starting to know in order to stop being this way, by means of the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION.

Therefore, what is the enchanted one? He is a condemned one, he is a sufferer without arguments and for that reason he suffers and after so much suffering, he dies. Because of being a sufferer he is condemned to death without clear, clean, perfect arguments and without defects. You do not know how to give any kind of solution, you do not know why you are this way and still less what you are.

What are you? Enchanted ones! For that reason, you only say that the world is of suffering, that this world is of martyrdom and of all the cruel distresses. You can only say what you see, what is going on with everyone, but you cannot say the why you are this way nor still less what you are. If you only knew what you are, long since you would not be this way and you would not be living this way. But, for not knowing at least what you are, you live horribly this way in this typhoon of anguishes. And now, through this universal Scripturation of world-wide enlightenment of the disenchantment, all will disenchant themselves and will know everything minutely.

The enchanted ones have never known where they came from nor to where they are going, from where this world came and to where it is going. You know that everyone keeps on dying and the world remaining there, but you do not know its ending nor still less its beginning.

And so, this enchantment that has lasted for a long time, it is now the time for the solution of everything and of all its makings. Therefore, you are enchanted ones that are now starting to be disenchanting. Strive to read daily, without wasting time in order not to suffer more than you have been suffering, and in order to be immunized the soonest possible, to leave this infernal struggle, this anguish, to become better in everything, to be resolved everything that you need.

Then, can you not see that this Scripturation is of a Saviour that am I, the RATIONAL SUPERIOR, putting the salvation in your hands and in the hands of all?

The ones who have the happiness of getting to now what you are knowing, strive immediately to read with persistence, repeatedly, all the passages, all the lessons, in order to have in yourselves all the bases, in order to be well enlightened and be able to enlighten the others. Be well enlightened in order to be immunized and to acquire the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION.

And so, the enchanted ones that are born there in this enchantment that is this world judging and thinking that life is really this one, but never resigning themselves to suffering, to the pains, to the distresses nor to death. No one resigns oneself to death and at the same time pretending to be resigned to life, and because of that you say that life is really this one, always falling in contradiction for not resigning yourselves to suffering and to death.

Therefore, you enchanted ones, be more grateful with what you are seeing, with what you are knowing of this reading, for the benefit of yourselves.

Thus remains this musty enchantment, everyone there moldy, ransacking everything very well, in order to see if one can find the good and the good always in the infinite and the suffering engulfing everyone. All living in this frightening enchantment, night and day, wasting time with this wisdom that claims that the world is a factory of sebaceous ones; hard fat, soft fat, fat as hard as stone or as iron, but everything is fat and for that reason everything gets melted. If it were not fat nothing would melt, but it is fat of divers species and divers forms.

And thus, that is the enchantment and it is now in your hands, the disenchantment and the salvation. The living creatures now have in their hands the true honey which is the Scripturation of eternal salvation made by the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION, that the more the living creature reads, the more immunized he becomes, until becoming integrally immunized with the persistence in reading. With the Immunization, the living creature has the solutions to everything he needs and these solutions always of elevation in the life of the living creature that will see something never before seen.

In order for the living creature to become immunized the fastest possible, it is necessary reading daily and the more the better. The future life will be much better than this modern life. This modern life is the life of enchantment and the future life of all is the life of disenchantment, where the Immunization will reign and instead of being enchantment, it is disenchantment. Instead of being spiritualization, of living of experiences, all will live immunized and right.

All immunized ones living much differently than they were living, like water from the wine. All living with the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION, right in everything, united in all points of view. All understanding each other, coming to an understanding and the suffering, the distresses, the querulousnesses of life disappearing.

And thus, the future life will be much different than this one because all will understand each other, all will be immunized, and the will of one shall be the will of all, what one knows all will know and all will live regulated. The distrust of one from the other ends. The living creatures will cease living distrustful because what one knows everyone knows, what one does everyone does. There will be no annoyance, the deceits will end, no one will be able to deceive one another because once the living creature immunized, he will know what everyone will know. Life this way will become much different from this one.

There is none who does not want to know how it is, how it is not, and how one was born in the world. Then, the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION taking all in and all the minds being equilibrated to the real point, and the modifications being made among all, big and small ones, like from water to wine. All understanding each other, all coming to an understanding, all obeying this basis, because everyone depends on it.

Now the infant asks: "Will this take long?" No, it will not take long. I am here enlightening all so that the moribund ones that in the world are weeping, in doubt, in distrust, may be awarded with this thing which long since they have been imploring for and that they will only reach with the RATIONAL IMMUNIZ-

ATION. Still the infant asks: "Why doesn't the RATIONAL SUPERIOR strive to immediately make this Literary Work so useful to the Universe, the most useful thing there can exist in the world? Why doesn't the RATIONAL SUPERIOR strive to make this the soonest possible?"

I say: everything will be accomplished very soon. This is an enlightenment in order to open the minds to what is the most useful thing in this world where all are imploring a different way of living, because they cannot resist any longer; resisting but always complaining, grieving about life, as one who says: "It is useless living in the world in these conditions that the world is in. There are no warranties, there is no peace, there is no happiness; only illusions and sufferings. Hope is what brings consolation, but it is what annoys and bothers." And the living creature, always in the hope, receiving the blows of suffering in a world irresistible to live in. That is why I tell you that when the Scripture be issued in the world, all will hold the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION with tooth and nail.

This is only a call of attention for those who start to wonder when will this be, and for the ones who think that not everyone in the world is going to accept it or that this is going to take long to be accepted. I understand, because the living creature does not know definitely what is the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION but rather he is starting to know now; when he knows it definitely, bit by bit, he will not think this way any longer. Looking at the world, what is going on, and all saying: "It is the salvation of all and the most important discovery there exists in the world." And everyone will cry with happiness in all corners.

Who is he that wants to lead life as, among big and small ones, you are leading it, ever more and more worse? This is to call your attention to how the RATIONAL IMMUNIZATION, the universal salvation, will be esteemed by everyone.

FROM WHERE WE CAME AND TO WHERE WE ARE GOING

There exists up here a great plain, much larger than this world, where the Rationals live. They live with their progress of purity. Yes; pure, clean, without defects, different from all these beasts. And in this plain there was a part which was not ready to enter into progress. Some Rationals entered into this part many times, and they were called to attention; and in one of the times they payed no heed to the call of attention, starting to progress by their own account, and this part, not being ready to enter into progress, started to deform itself.

Thus was the beginning and the origin of this world. Starting to progress by their own account in the part which was not ready yet, instead of going forward, they went backwards; instead of going to the better, they went to the worse because this part was not ready. Then, this part started to displace itself from the plain. As they were progressing, it was descending, and descending always, until coming to this conclusion that is there, inside a hole, looking up here and not knowing where all this appeared from. As they were progressing, the part was descending more, and so it was, very gradually, and they also becoming accustomed to it and thinking that they were doing very well.

Then, after a certain time, as they were deforming themselves, the plain was getting lower and more and more; and they losing the virtues, as something that transforms itself into some other thing. The lost virtues started to gather, after all of them
